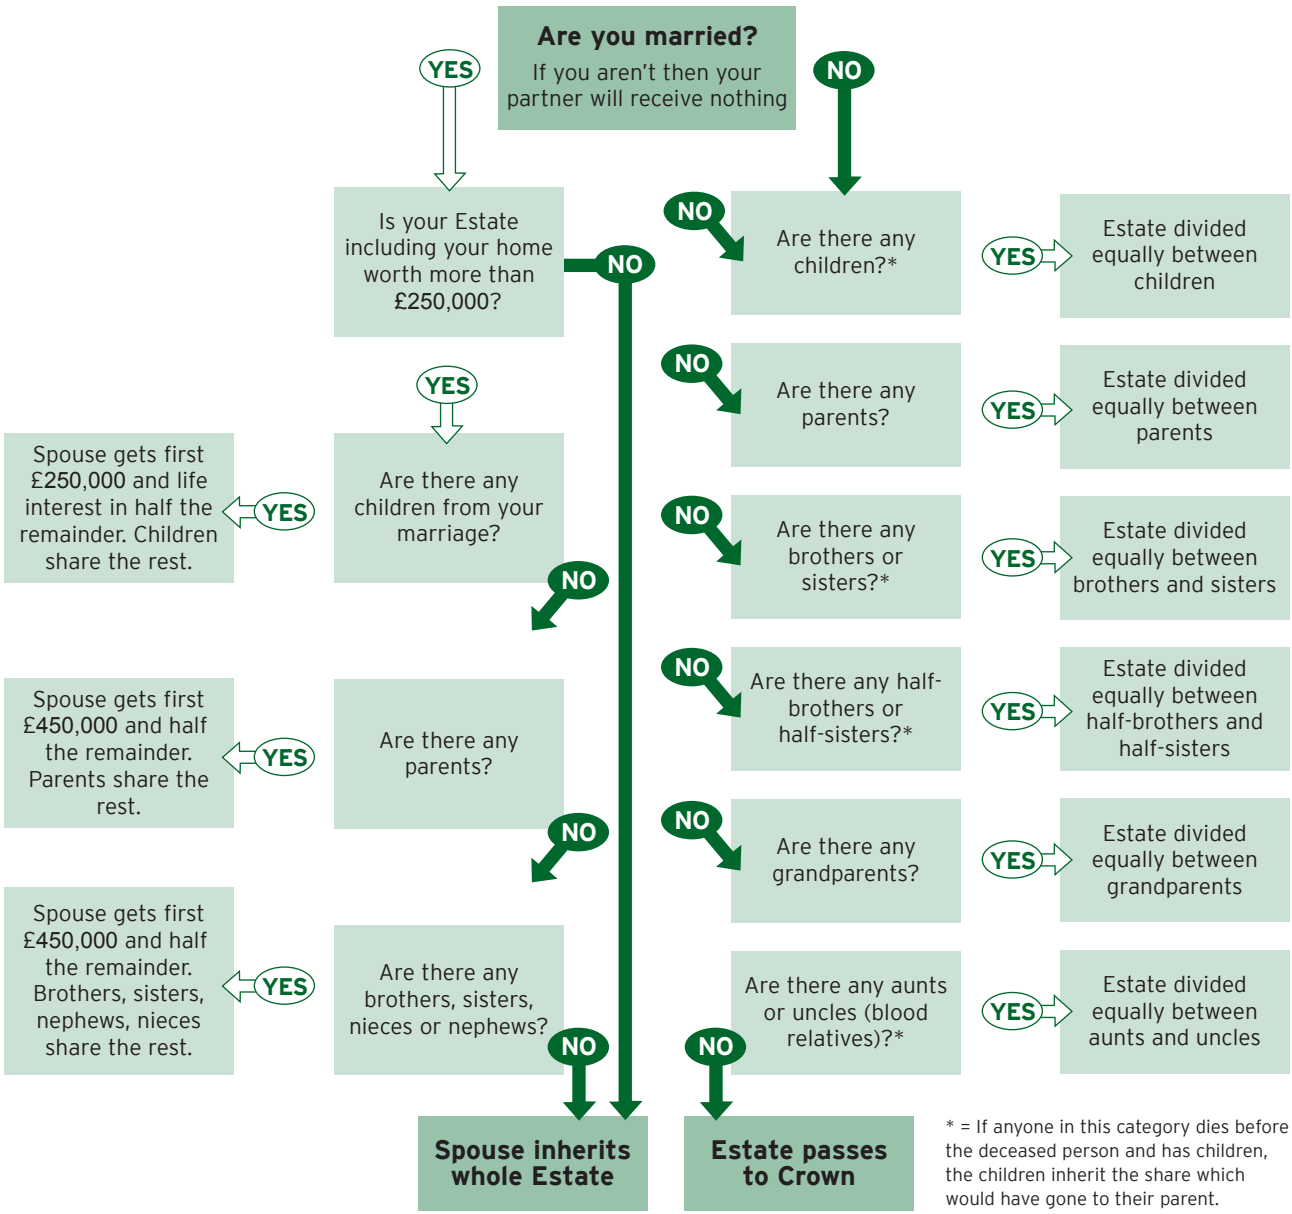
What happens if you don't have a Will?

The Laws of Intestacy from 1 February 2009



* = If anyone in this category dies before the deceased person and has children, the children inherit the share which would have gone to their parent.